

KINDRA HALL

KEYNOTE DESCRIPTIONS

(Use these descriptions of Kindra's keynote for conference materials like agendas, conference programs and event apps.)

Stories That Stick: The Irresistible Power of Strategic Storytelling

Through compelling research, profound case studies, and captivating stories of her own, Kindra will elevate individuals on all levels of your company. The outcome of this keynote is attendees feeling empowered, excited and capable of making a simple shift to telling more strategic stories to captivate customers, influence behavior and transform business.

The Transformative Power of Self-Storytelling: Reprogramming Happiness, Success and Well-Being from the Inside Out

It's no secret that storytelling is a powerful tool, but few recognize the most important stories of all: the stories we tell ourselves. Developed from original research, Kindra's simple and actionable process for reprogramming your internal narrative will leave attendees feeling empowered to redesign their lives from the inside out—immediately equipping them to maximize their professional potential, happiness, and overall life satisfaction.