“MIND BLOWN”

Brett StClair's AI Keynote was such an informative, educational, thought-provoking and (of course) entertaining presentation in true Brett style. ChatGPT, Midjourney & Co. are fascinating to watch in real time (especially AI generated Indiana StClair) and one cannot help but wonder what it means for our

“BLEW OUR AUDIENCE AWAY”

Brett spoke at our Integrated Marketing Communication Conference. He blew our audience away with his amazing stage presence and in-depth knowledge of the digital and AI world, which makes him an educator as well as an entertainer. Our audience loved Brett and we can't wait to invite him back onto our stage again. - IMC CONFERENCES

“BRILLIANT PRESENTATION”

MyBroadband has used Brett as a speaker for multiple conferences, and he always provides a brilliant presentation at exactly the right level. His strong tech knowledge and experience in the global digital landscape helps him to bring complex concepts together and deliver it to the audience in an easy- to-understand and entertaining way. We can highly recommend him for any conference – he is a world-class speaker and a pleasure to work with.

“YOU BROUGHT AN ENERGY”

Thanks Brett for being our MC and Keynote Speaker at the Africa DevOps Day conference. You brought an energy to the event that I believe has not been there before. A lot of feedback has been that this was the biggest yet most relaxed Africa DevOps Day conference yet. Your keynote presentation on the Culture Behind DevOps was also very well received. I most enjoyed your point of becoming uncomfortably excited. Your personal approach to interviewing each speakers gave these interviews a vibe of intimacy enabling the speakers to relax and open up. Thanks for doing an amazing job hosting the day, and helping us start the conversation of Scaling DevOps Through Infrastructure.
